Cambridge CELTA Application
Written Task

The aims of this task are to help us ensure that your written English is an appropriate standard for the course, and to provide us with further information on your views of teaching & learning.

Task: Think of two different learning experiences/situations in your life, one successful and one unsuccessful. In each case, state what the situation was and the factors which you think made it successful or unsuccessful.

Please write in continuous prose, not in note form.
